NIELSEN
PROFESSIONAL RANGE

“ PROVIDING THE VERY BEST QUALITY AUTOMOTIVE PRODUCTS,
WITH A PREMIER SERVICE WHICH IS CONSISTENTLY PROFESSIONAL, ATTENTIVE AND EFFICIENT”

NIELSEN

NIELSEN CHEMICALS

is a manufacturer of specialist cleaning products for the Automotive Industry; our brand portfolio encompasses a complete range of cleaning, valeting and maintenance products.

Nielsen products are sold in the UK through our growing network of franchisees, and worldwide through a trusted base of distributors. We are committed to ensuring product quality and high levels of customer service for each and every one of our customers.

Based in Moira our manufacturing site is complete with an International Training Academy, we develop and design market leading products in line with current legislation, to ensure that they meet the demands of the different business environments in which our customers operate.

We strive to offer the most effective products and to do this we must test hundreds of raw materials and blends, creating easy to use products that work, time and time again. As part of this commitment, our chemists and technicians invest countless hours developing products in our on-site research and development laboratories. This ensures that our products are developed and tested for optimum performance and product compatibility, on all existing and emerging automotive materials.

INTERNATIONAL TRAINING ACADEMY

At our site in Moira, our training academy offers a complete purpose built facility for both product training and testing new products which are currently in development. The Training Academy offers all the equipment needed for cleaning, valeting, detailing and paint rectification, including:

- Low and high pressure water cleaning facilities
- A complete range of automatic dilution equipment
- Wet and dry extraction machines
- Machine and manual polishing equipment
- High and low level lighting specifically designed for technical detailing

OUR COMMITMENT TO QUALITY & THE ENVIRONMENT

As an organisation we comply with all European legislation ensuring the protection of both human health and the environment, and are ISO9001, ISO14001 and OHSAS 18001 compliant. Nielsen works hard to ensure that products are developed in order to meet the latest environmental legislation, and to minimise their impact on the environment.

In order to pro-actively reduce our carbon footprint, Nielsen has signed a contract to work in partnership with The National Forest. We have sponsored a new five-year development on a 38-hectare site that saw a total of 42,000 trees planted by 2015 - each sponsored by Nielsen.

OUR COMMITMENT TO HEALTH & SAFETY

As part of our ongoing commitment to health and safety, we provide safety data sheets for each product in our range, which can be found on our website.

ACADEMY
Training Courses & Information

THE ACADEMY

At our site in Moira, our training academy offers a complete purpose built facility for both product training and testing new products which are currently in development. The Training Academy offers all the equipment needed for cleaning, valeting, detailing and paint rectification, including:

- Low and high pressure water cleaning facilities
- A complete range of automatic dilution equipment
- Wet and dry extraction machines
- Machine and manual polishing equipment
- High and low level lighting specifically designed for technical detailing

OUR COURSES

Nielsen have devised a series of training courses, designed to provide new and experienced valeters, with the skills to work on vehicles to a professional standard.

Our courses provide an overview of how to valet, clean and conduct paint work restoration, to the highest possible standards and professionalism.

This includes hands on training in product and equipment selection, usage techniques, application methods, dilutions and surface compatibility.

Conducted at the Nielsen Training Academy, Derbyshire, with the full range of products, equipment, personal protection equipment (PPE) and expertise provided. Upon completion, participants will receive certification to confirm and substantiate the individuals level of expertise.

COURSES AVAILABLE:

- PROFESSIONAL VALETING
- PROFESSIONAL SALES VALETING
- PAINT WORK RECTIFICATION & RESTORATION
